

Position: Database Administrator

Information Technology Operation & Services Department

Job Description:

- Database Administration – create, backup/restore, recovery, monitor database, etc. for multiple brands of database.
- Design Database including optimal database components and relationships - diagnostics and Performance tuning with various technique for the growing core and supplemental systems.
- Design Data Warehouse with the optimization and performance tuning for multiple types of data operations.
- Collaborate with application team on query design and optimization.
- Advance database administration – replication, migration, data distribution, etc.
- Architect the technical solution for database and middleware.

Qualifications Required:

- At least 5 years of IT DB experience.
- Strong Experience in database administration – create, backup/restore, recovery, monitor database; partitioning, RAC option.
- Strong in optimizing the database structure and performance.
- Experienced in MySQL, SQL Server and Oracle(optional); familiar with replication and synchronization scheme.
- Experienced in Data Warehouse and Big Data on design and performance tuning;
- Familiar with Apache data platform: Hadoop and the relevant.
- English speaking, reading and writing are mandatory.

HR Recruitment: hr@th.icbc.com.cn