

Mr Ng Hock Boon has been Head of Corporate Banking Department, ICBC Singapore Branch for the past 10 years serving Singapore, Chinese and Multinational Companies in their cross-border RMB financial requirements relating to their trade and investment in China. Previously he worked in the Singapore branch of other international banks such as Standard Chartered, BNP Paribas and Mizhuo Corporate Bank also in Corporate Banking covering Singapore and regional customers. He graduated from the National University of Singapore with Bachelor of Business Administration, Finance.