

Terms and Conditions:

General Terms and Conditions:

1. All rewards cannot be exchanged for cash.
2. The above rewards cannot be used in conjunction with any other promotional offers.
3. Free credit card spending limit will be served as the reward of the Account Opening Reward and Member-Get-Member Reward to new customer of the Industrial and Commercial Bank of China (Asia) Limited ("the Bank" or "ICBC"). The free credit card spending limit will be credited to customer's ICBC Credit Card account within the Reward Period. For joint-name account, the reward will be credited to the Credit Card account of the primary account holder of the joint-name account. If the primary account holder does not have a valid ICBC Credit Card, the reward will be credited to the ICBC Credit Card account of other account holders of the joint-name account subject to the Bank's sole and absolute discretion. For customers who do not have an ICBC Credit Card, they have to apply for one in order to enjoy the reward. If the customer's credit card application is rejected by the Bank, the reward will be credited to customer's bank account.
4. The free credit card spending limit reward is for credit card spending only and cannot be used for cash advance or settlement of credit card overdue payment.
5. The Bank is not the supplier of any product or service for the rewards, and makes no representation or guarantee in respect of such product or service. The Bank shall not be responsible for or guarantee the quality or the quantity of supply, and fitness for any particular use of such product or service and shall have no liability for any matters relating thereto. Customer should contact the suppliers directly if there is any complaint or dispute on such product or service. Use of any product or service under the reward shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the participating suppliers (if applicable).
6. The gifts are available on a first-come, first-served basis while stocks last. The gift photos are for reference only. The Bank reserves the right to offer an alternative gift as replacement in case of shortage.
7. The Bank reserves the right to vary or terminate the Reward at any time and to amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time.
8. In case of any dispute, the decision of the Bank shall be final and conclusive.
9. In case of any discrepancy between the English and Chinese versions, the English version shall apply and prevail.
10. Any person or entity that is not a party to these Terms and Conditions shall have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Ordinance (Cap. 623, Laws of Hong Kong) to enforce any part of these Terms and Conditions.

Risk Disclosure:

Investment involves risk and the prices of securities products fluctuate. The prices of securities may move up or down, sometimes dramatically, and may become valueless. It is as likely that loss will be incurred rather than profit made as result of buying and selling investment. The risk of loss in financing a transaction by deposit of collateral is significant. You may sustain losses in excess of your cash and any other assets deposited as collateral with the licensed or registered person. You may be called upon at short notice to make additional margin or interest payments. If the required margin or interest payments are not made within the prescribed time, your collateral may be liquidated without your consent. Moreover, you will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account and interest charged on your account. You should consider your own circumstances including but not limited to financial position and investment objectives to ensure the investment are suitable for your particular investment needs. You shall seek independent professional advice on legal, tax, financial and other issues in connection with the investment. The price of the warrants and Callable Bull/Bear Contracts ("CBBC") may move up or down rapidly and investors may sustain a total loss of their investment. Past performance of the underlying asset is not an indicator of future performance. You should ensure that you understand the nature of the warrants and CBBC and carefully study the risk factors set out in the relevant listing documents of the warrants and CBBC and where necessary, seek independent professional advice. Warrants that are not exercised will have no value upon expiry. CBBC has a mandatory call feature and may be terminated early, in such case, (i) in the case of Category N CBBCs, an investor will not receive any residual value and (ii) in the case of Category R CBBCs, the residual value may be zero. Investors should bear in mind the key risks of ETFs which include but not limited to political, economic, currency, and other risks of a specific sector or market related to the underlying index; liquid secondary market may not exist for ETFs; changes in the net asset value of the ETFs may deviate from the performance of the tracking index, ETFs may invest in single country and sector; ETFs with tracking index relating to emerging markets may be subject to a greater risk of loss than investments in developed markets; and like all investments, an ETF is subject to the risk of change in policy of the reference market. Leveraged and inverse products (L&I Products) are derivative products structured as funds. L&I Products are different from conventional ETFs. They do not share the same characteristics and risks. L&I Products are not designed for holding longer than one day, it is for short-term trading or hedging purposes. When L&I Products are held after a period of time, their return may deviate from and may be uncorrelated to the multiple (in the case of leveraged products) or the opposite (in the case of inverse products) of the return of the underlying index. Investors may suffer significant or even total losses. Trading L&I Products involves investment risk and are not intended for all investors. There is no guarantee of repaying the principal amount. Investors should read the relevant offering documents of Leveraged and inverse products and ensure they understand the key product features and related risks before making an investment.
