

The Economic Health Index measures macroeconomic performance & risk along Belt & Road

Thirteen themes,
forty-six indicators

ECONOMIC HEALTH
Macroeconomic Performance
Current Outlook	Market Fundamentals
Domestic demand	Market size and growth
External demand	Tax & regulatory environment
Short-term prospects	Financial & physical infrastructure
Risk Outlook
Economic Risk	Political Risk
Monetary policy	Business environment
Sovereign risk	Conflict & security
External risk	Political outlook & policy
Price & cost stability

● Top 10 EHI countries (2017)

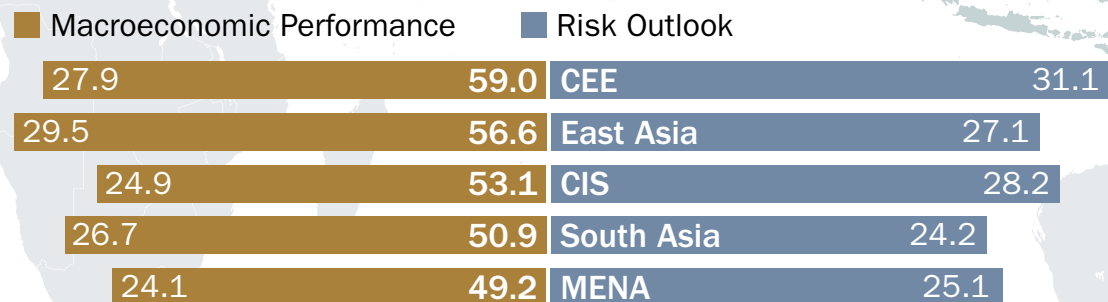

Total Index score

Top performers (2017)

Macroeconomic Performance	Lowest Risk
1. China	1. Brunei
2. Qatar	2. Kuwait
3. Singapore	3. UAE
4. Vietnam	4. Israel
5. Estonia	5. Czech Republic
6. UAE	6. Turkmenistan
7. Georgia	7. Russia
8. Bhutan	8. Estonia
9. India	9. Macedonia
10. Malaysia	10. Thailand

CEE performs strongly thanks to lower risk
MENA lags, hit by low oil prices

Economic health at an all-time high

