Please read the below information carefully as it contains the conditions governing email communications, including attachments, between you and the Company. By emailing with the Company you agree to these conditions of use. Attachments may have additional important disclosures and disclaimers, which you should read. More information on the Company is available at www.icbcstandardbank.com.

The contents of the email, including any attachments, are confidential and intended solely for the ordinary recipient of the email addresses to which it was sent. If you are not the intended recipient of the email you may not copy, forward, disclose or otherwise use it or any part of it in any form, and you should delete the email from your system and notify the Company by return email. Use by other than the intended recipients is strictly prohibited.

Everything in the email and any attachments relating to the business of the Company is proprietary to the Company. It may be confidential, legally privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure. The Company does not own and endorse any other content.

Information and opinions were produced by the Company as per the date stated and may be subject to change without prior notification. Opinions expressed represent current opinions as of the date appearing on the email only. Additional information with respect to any financial instrument or product referred to herein may be made available on request.

Unless otherwise specifically indicated, the email is:

- for the general information of institutional and market professional clients of the Company and should not be considered to constitute a personal recommendation. It does not take into account the particular investment objectives, financial situation or needs of individual clients; and
- not to be used or considered as an official confirmation of any transaction, an official valuation, or an official statement of the Company, nor an offer or the solicitation of an offer to sell or to buy or subscribe for financial instruments or other products, or to participate in any particular trading strategy, nor shall it, or the fact of its distribution, form the basis of, or be relied upon in connection with, any contract relating to such action.

The email, or any attachments, may not be altered in any way, transmitted to, copied or distributed to any other party, without the prior express written permission of the Company. All trademarks, service marks and logos used in the email are trademarks or service marks or registered trademarks or service marks of the Company.

The email is directed at persons who are professionals and is not intended for retail customer use. The email is not intended for distribution to, or use by, any person or entity in any location where such distribution or use would be contrary to law or regulation, or which would subject the Company to any registration requirement within such location.

The email does not constitute, nor should it be regarded as, investment research. It has not been prepared in accordance with the full legal requirements designed to promote independence of research and is not subject to any prohibition on dealing ahead of investment research.

The financial instruments and products discussed in the email may not be available to nor suitable for all recipients. The information in the email is not intended to replace a recipient's own internal business processes for evaluating proposed transactions. Recipients should ensure they have sufficient information to ascertain the legal, financial, tax and regulatory consequences of an investment to enable them to make their own informed investment decision based upon their own financial objectives and financial resources, and if necessary, should seek professional advice.

It should be noted that investment involves risk, including, but not limited to, the risk of capital loss. Past performance is no guide to future performance. In relation to financial instruments or products denominated in foreign currency, movements in exchange rates will have an effect on their value, either favourable or unfavourable. Some financial instruments or products discussed in the email may have a high level of volatility. High volatility investments may experience sudden and large falls in their value causing losses when that investment is realised. Those losses may equal your original investment. Indeed, in the case of some investments, the potential losses may exceed the amount of initial investment, and in such circumstances, you may be required to pay more money to support those losses. Income yields from investments may fluctuate and, in consequence, initial capital paid for such investments may be used as part of that income yield. Some investments may not be readily realisable and it may be difficult to sell or realize those investments, similarly it may prove difficult for you to obtain reliable information about the value, or risks, to which such an investment is exposed. All pricing is indicative as of the close of market for the financial instruments or products discussed, unless otherwise stated.

The Company or its employees may from time to time have long or short positions in financial instruments or products referred to in the email (or its attachments). The Company does and seeks to do business with companies covered in the email. As a result, recipients should be aware that the Company may have a conflict of interest that could affect the objectivity of the email.

It is advised that in keeping with good computing practice the recipient of the email should ensure that it is virus free. The Company does not accept responsibility for any virus that may be transferred by way of the email. Emails may be susceptible to data corruption, interception and unauthorised amendment, and the Company does not accept liability for any such corruption, interception or amendment or any consequences thereof.

The information presented in the email (and opinions or analysis based on this information) was obtained from sources that the Company considers reliable, but the Company does not warrant or represent (expressly or impliedly) that it is accurate, complete, not misleading or as to its fitness for the purpose intended and it should not be relied upon as such. The Company accepts no responsibility for any reliance placed on information contained in the email by any person.

Please be aware that messages sent to and from the Company may be monitored for reasons of security, to protect our business, and to ensure compliance with legal and regulatory obligations and our internal policies. The email may be produced at the request of regulators or in connection with civil litigation. Emails should not be considered as a secure method of communication.
