- e) Consistent with the Bank's Privacy Policy and existing law, the Bank maintains a database containing a record of Instructions involving your account, and such records will be conclusive and binding on you, with respect to any dispute, including any legal proceeding, as conclusive evidence of the Instructions, in the absence of clear and convincing evidence that the Bank's records are inaccurate. You agree that computer generated or electronic records received or created by the Bank in connection with your use of the Service shall be admissible in a court of law as the Bank's business records and automatically generated records of a computerized database, and you waive any argument or defense that you may otherwise have as to the admissibility of such records.
- f) Instructions, involving your account, are not to be considered as having been received and executed by the Bank until the Bank has actually processed such Instructions.
- g) The Bank may require and take up to five (5) or more business days to process a bill payment Instruction. The processing of bill payment Instructions made after 3:00 p.m., United States Eastern Standard Time, on a weekend or holiday, will normally begin or occur the next banking day subsequent to the weekend or holiday.
- h) You can cancel or stop a single bill payment any time before the payment made on any business day prior to the cut-off time to cancel or stop payment, which is 3:00 p.m., United States Eastern Standard Time, for the payment made the same business day through the use of Services. In order to cancel a recurring bill payment, you must cancel the recurring series before the next scheduled Payment date prior to the cut-off time, which is 3:00 p.m., United States Eastern Standard Time.
- i) You can request a stop payment on a personal check via Internet Banking or by calling customer service at 212-238-8208 for accounts opened in the New York Region, 626-300-8888 for accounts opened in the Southern California Region, or 415-668-7788 for accounts opened in the Northern California Region, during business hours, or by calling the number on your bank statement. You will need to provide the following information: check number, date written, exact amount, and payee. If the amount and check number are not exact, the check may be paid. The stop payment cannot be placed on an item that has already been presented. A stop payment on a personal check will be effective for six (6) months. You must contact us if any information on the confirmation is not correct. In some cases, we may pay an item even if a stop payment instruction was given. As an example, if one of our banking centers, without notice of your stop payment request, pays a check that you have asked us to stop, we may still pay the check. A stop payment order generally expires after six months. However, the Bank may, in its sole discretion, elect to honor a stop payment order for a longer period of time without notice. If you want your stop payment order to continue after six months, you must specifically request that the Bank renew the order. Each request for a renewal is treated as a new order. If you want the order to expire in less than six months, you must cancel the order on or after the date you want it to expire. Your request to stop payment is not effective until we have a reasonable opportunity and period of time to act on your stop payment request. We cancel the order automatically when the account on which the item is drawn is closed. If the item is presented to us for payment after the order expires, we may pay the item. If we pay an item subject to a valid and timely stop payment order, we may be liable to you if you had a legal right to stop payment and you establish that you suffered a loss because of the payment. Our liability, if any liability exists, is strictly limited to the actual loss suffered, up to the amount of the item. You must prove the loss to our satisfaction and by clear and convincing evidence. We are not liable to you for any special, incidental or consequential loss or damage of any kind or for any reason.

- j) The Bank is not responsible for problems that may develop as a result of your failure to maintain sufficient funds in your account. You are responsible for any incorrect information provided by you or errors that may have been made in setting up payments.
- k) If you have any questions or concerns about the Service, your Account, or any particular transaction, contact us as soon as you can at 212-238-8208 for accounts opened in the New York Region, 626-300-8888 for accounts opened in the Southern California Region, or 415-668-7788 for accounts opened in the Northern California Region, to inform the Bank via telephone, or send an email describing the facts and circumstances at issue to info@us.icbc.com.cn. - g) You agree that you will cooperate and assist in any investigation, including filing a report with law enforcement authorities, which the Bank may initiate in connection with any unauthorized use of the Service.

If you notify us within two (2) business days after you learn of the theft of any of your Identification Codes, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone made a transaction without your permission. If you do not notify us within two (2) business days after you learn of the theft of any of your Identification Codes, you could lose as much as $500.00. If you do not notify us within sixty (60) days after the Bank sent a statement to you showing any unauthorized transactions, you may have full liability for all such unauthorized transactions.
- i) If your Account is a Business Account, you are liable for unauthorized transactions. However, you can help prevent unauthorized transactions by monitoring your Account and reporting any suspicious activity on your Account.

5. Specific Terms for Domestic Wire Transfers.

- a) You acknowledge that the Bank uses a variety of banking channels to execute funds transfers. Funds transfers authorized by you under this Agreement may involve Federal Reserve Wire Network (“Fedwire”), the Clearing House Interbank Payments Systems (CHIPS) and/or such other funds transfer systems. Funds transfers made through Fedwire shall be governed by the rules of Subpart B of Regulation J and Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code. Funds transfers made through CHIPS are governed by CHIPS Rules and Administrative Procedures and the laws of the State of New York, including Article 4A of the New York Uniform Commercial Code.

- b) By accessing the Service using your Identification Codes, you acknowledge and agree that this Agreement sets forth security procedures for electronic banking transactions that are commercially reasonable. You agree to be bound by instructions, whether authorized or unauthorized, which we implement in compliance with these procedures.
- c) Fees or Dollar Limits. The Bank sets a daily limit on the maximum amount you can transfer on a given day. There is no limit on the total amount of money you can send from your own account or joint account under your name. For all other transfers, the maximum daily limit is $50,000.00.
- d) The Bank may require and take up to five (5) or more business days to process a transfer of funds Instruction. - e) Cancelling or Amending Requests.

If your funds transfer request has been executed by the Bank, you understand and agree that the request to cancel or amend the funds transfer will be effective only with the voluntary consent of the Bank and the beneficiary bank. If you decide to cancel or amend your funds transfer and your request has already been executed, the Bank will have to confirm that the beneficiary bank will return your funds. If the beneficiary bank confirms that the funds are returnable and agrees to do so, once the funds are returned to you by the beneficiary bank, the Bank will return the funds to you.
  - ii. The amount that is returned to you may be less than the amount originally transferred because of service charges of the beneficiary bank and/or the Bank. The Bank shall not be liable to you for any loss resulting from the failure of the beneficiary bank to accept a cancellation or amendment of your funds transfer request.
- f) Liability. Unless otherwise required by law, the Bank shall not be liable for any error or delay on the part of any third party or for any other act or omission of any third party, including without limitation third parties used by the Bank in executing any payment order relating to a transfer or performing a related act, and no such third party shall be deemed to be our agent.

6. Limitation of Liability.

You agree that you are independently responsible for complying with all applicable laws in all of your activities related to your use of the Service, regardless of the purpose of the use, and for all communications you send through the Service. 7. Additional Provisions.

- a) In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement and any other agreement between you and the Bank, the provisions of this Agreement take precedence to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency associated with the use of the Service.
- b) You expressly agree the Bank may collect, use, and disclose your personal information in accordance with the Bank's Privacy Policy.
- c) You authorize the Bank to communicate with you by fax, by online notice posted to our website or electronic mail at such numbers or addresses as you from time to time provide to the Bank, and you explicitly authorize the Bank to send you SMS, MMS, or other text messages associated with your use of the Services, and without any prior notice or consent from you to send such text messages.
- d) Communications by fax, online notice, text message, or electronic mail will be deemed to have been delivered to you at the time and date of transmission.
- e) YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ENSURING THAT YOU IMMEDIATELY NOTIFY THE BANK IF AND WHEN YOUR PHYSICAL ADDRESS, TELEPHONE NUMBER, FAX NUMBER, OR EMAIL ADDRESS ARE NO LONGER VALID, OR HAVE BEEN COMPROMISED, AND THAT YOUR FAILURE TO IMMEDIATELY NOTIFY THE BANK IN SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES MAY LEAD TO THE DISCLOSURE OF YOUR ACCOUNT INFORMATION, PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION, OR OTHER INFORMATION TO UNAUTHORIZED PERSONS AT YOUR FORMER OR COMPROMISED PHYSICAL ADDRESS, TELEPHONE NUMBER, FAX NUMBER, OR EMAIL ADDRESS.

- f) No act or omission by the Bank pursuant to these terms shall affect its rights, powers, and remedies under this Agreement or any further or other exercise of such rights, powers, or remedies.
- g) Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be severed, to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability, from the balance of the terms of this Agreement, without affecting the remaining provisions or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provisions in any other jurisdiction.
- h) This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state of New York and the United States of America, without regard to conflict of laws. The Bank will try to work in good faith to resolve any issue you have regarding this Agreement, if you bring your issue to the Bank's attention. However, we realize that there may be rare cases where we may not be able to resolve an issue to your satisfaction. You and the Bank agree that any dispute, claim, or controversy, arising out of or relating in any way to this Agreement, shall be determined by binding arbitration instead of in courts of general jurisdiction. Arbitration is more informal than bringing a lawsuit in court. Arbitration uses a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, and is subject to a very limited review by courts. Arbitration allows for more limited discovery than in court, however, we agree to cooperate with each other to agree to reasonable discovery in light of the issues involved and amount of the claim. Arbitrators can award the same damages and relief that a court can award, but in so doing, the arbitrator shall apply substantive law regarding damages as if the matter had been brought in court, including without limitation, the law on punitive damages as applied by the United States Supreme Court. You agree that, by agreeing to this Agreement, the U.S. Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this provision, and that you and the Bank are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This arbitration provision shall survive any termination of this Agreement and any other contractual relationship between you and the Bank. If you desire to assert a claim against the Bank, and you therefore elect to seek arbitration, you must first send to the Bank, by certified mail, a written Notice of your claim ("Notice"). The Notice to the Bank should be addressed to The Industrial and Commercial Bank of China (USA) NA, 1185 Avenue of the Americas, 16th Floor, New York, NY 10036 ("Notice Address"). If the Bank desires to assert a claim against you and therefore elects to seek arbitration, it will send, by certified mail, a written Notice to the most recent mailing address or email address we have on file or otherwise in our records for you. A Notice, whether sent by you or by the Bank, must (a) describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute; and (b) set forth the specific relief sought ("Demand"). If the Bank and you do not reach an agreement to resolve the claim within 30 days after the Notice is received, you or the Bank may commence an arbitration proceeding or file a claim in small claims court. During the arbitration, the amount of any settlement offer made by the Bank or you shall not be disclosed to the arbitrator. You may download or copy a form Notice and a form to initiate arbitration from the American Arbitration Association at www.adr.org. The arbitration will be governed by the Commercial Arbitration Rules and the Supplementary Procedures for Consumer Related Disputes (collectively, "AAA Rules") of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), as modified by this Agreement, and will be administered by the AAA. The AAA Rules and Forms are available online at www.adr.org or by requesting them from us by writing to us at the Notice Address. The arbitrator is bound by the terms of this Agreement. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, including issues relating to the scope and enforceability of this Agreement, including this arbitration agreement. Unless the Bank and you agree otherwise in writing, any arbitration hearings will take place in New York, New York. If your claim is for $10,000 USD or less, we agree that you may choose whether the arbitration will be conducted solely on the basis of documents submitted to the arbitrator, through a telephonic hearing, or by an in-person hearing as established by the AAA Rules. If your claim exceeds $10,000 USD, the right to a hearing will be determined by the AAA Rules. Regardless of the manner in which the arbitration is conducted, the arbitrator shall issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based. Except as expressly set forth herein, the payment of all filing, administration, and arbitrator fees will be governed by the AAA Rules. Each party shall pay for its own costs and attorneys' fees, if any. However, if any party prevails on a statutory claim that affords the prevailing party attorneys' fees, or if there is a written agreement providing for payment or recovery attorneys' fees, the arbitrator may award reasonable fees to the prevailing party, under the standards for fee shifting provided by law. YOU AND THE BANK AGREE THAT EACH MAY BRING CLAIMS AGAINST THE OTHER ONLY IN YOUR OR ITS INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY, AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. Further, unless both you and the Bank agree otherwise in writing, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims with your claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. The arbitrator may award declaratory or injunctive relief only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual claim. If this specific provision is found to be unenforceable, then (a) the entirety of this arbitration provision shall be null and void, but the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect; and (b) exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any claims will be in state or federal courts located in New York State.

- i) The Bank reserves the right to modify or terminate the terms of this Agreement, at any time, without prior notice, and the Bank will have no liability for any loss or inconvenience which may result from any modification or termination of the Agreement. Your use of the Service following any modification constitutes your agreement to follow and be bound by these terms as revised, and you are responsible for reviewing this Agreement prior to using the Service to determine whether you agree with the version of this Agreement, as modified, currently in effect whenever you use the Service.
- j) You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Bank, its affiliates, and its service providers and the employees and contractors of each of these, from any loss, damage, claim, or demand (including attorneys' fees) made or incurred due to or arising out of your breach of this Agreement or your use of the Bank's website or the Services.
