Thus, for any market abuse-related breaches, different reporting channels, details about the confidentiality of the reporting process, reporting persons must refer to the Market Abuse Policy. Nevertheless, in case of doubts, employees are encouraged to report wrongdoings applying the guidelines and related protection measures set out in the Whistleblowing Policy. This method is to be used in the event that the reporting persons are not able to distinguish "general" wrongdoings from "specific" Market Abuse wrongdoings (offering, for example, the possibility to remain anonymous). To this end, after receiving the report, the Branch will process it following the specific rules laid down for Market Abuse despite having received the report through the Whistleblowing channel.
