Chapter 4. Procedure for recognition/denial of recognition of the Client as a qualified investor

4.1. The Bank analyzes the documents submitted by the Client for compliance with the Requirements established by these Regulations on the basis of the Application received on its behalf and the documents attached to it provided for by these Regulations.

In addition, the following shall be submitted to the Bank simultaneously with the Application:

a) for Clients - individuals:

– an identity document of the Client / Authorized Person in accordance with the requirements of the current legislation of the Russian Federation or the country of origin of the Client / Authorized Person;

– a power of attorney to perform actions within the framework of these Regulations and a copy of the identity document of the Client (if the Authorized Person applies);

b) for Clients - legal entities:

- an identity document of the Authorized Person in accordance with the requirements of the current legislation of the Russian Federation or the country of origin of the Authorized Person.

All documents for the implementation of actions to recognize the Client as a qualified investor are submitted by the Client on paper.

Acceptance of documents is carried out only upon presentation to the Bank by persons representing the interests of the Client, documents proving their identity.

Acceptance by the Bank of the Application filled in the prescribed form and signed by the Client or the Authorized Person(s) shall be confirmed by the Bank's note of acceptance and the signature of the authorized person of the Bank on the copy of the Application.

A copy of the Application with the original mark of the Bank is transferred to the Client at his request.

4.2. The Bank checks the Client's compliance with the Requirements within 5 (Five) business days from the date of receipt by the Bank of the Application with a complete set of documents attached to it that meets the Requirements indicated by the Client in the Application.

The Bank has the right to request from the Client additional documents confirming its compliance with the Requirements. In this case, the term for consideration of documents is suspended from the date the Bank sends the relevant request to the Client until the date the Client submits a complete set of documents.

4.3. The Bank has the right to refuse to recognize a person as a qualified investor on the following grounds:

- non-compliance of the Application provided by the Client with the form established by these Regulations, including the absence in the Application of information, the presence of which is necessary in accordance with the form established by these Regulations;
- the Application and/or other documents submitted by the Client (including in accordance with section 5 of these Regulations) contain incorrect, incomplete or contradictory information;
- the Bank has doubts about the authenticity of one or more documents submitted by the Client, including the authenticity of the signature and/or seal imprint affixed to the document;
- the period of validity of the relevant powers of the person who signed the Application on behalf of the Client has expired, or the powers of the said person have been terminated ahead of time, or the said person is acting in excess of the powers;
- as a result of checking the documents submitted by the Client, it was established that the Client did not comply with the Requirements, or it was revealed that on the basis of the specified documents it was impossible to establish the Client's compliance with the Requirements;
- in the absence of an agreement concluded with the Bank on the provision of services in the securities markets;
- on other grounds stipulated by the current legislation of the Russian Federation and internal documents of the Bank.

4.4. The Client is recognized as a qualified investor from the moment the Bank makes an entry on its inclusion in the Register.

If the Bank makes a decision to recognize the Client as a qualified investor, the Client shall be sent a Notification on recognizing the Client as a qualified investor no later than 5 (Five) business days from the date of making the relevant entry in the Register, which must contain an indication of which types of services and/or which types of securities securities and/or other financial instruments The Client is recognized as a qualified investor (Appendix 9 to these Regulations).

If a decision is made to recognize a Client - an individual as a qualified investor, the Bank, no later than one business day after the date of inclusion of the Client in the Register, informs the Client about the consequences of recognizing him as a qualified investor by sending a Notification on the consequences of recognizing an individual as a qualified investor (Appendix 10 to these Regulations).

A notice of the consequences of recognizing an individual as a qualified investor must contain the following information:

- that the acquisition of securities and the conclusion of agreements that are financial derivatives, in respect of which the Client is recognized as a qualified investor, is associated with increased risks;

- on the Client’s right to submit to the Bank an application to exclude him from the register of persons recognized as qualified investors, and in this case to lose the opportunity, using the Bank’s services, to acquire securities and conclude agreements that are derivative financial instruments in respect of which the Client has been recognized by the Bank as qualified an investor;
- on the method and form of sending by the Client to the Bank of the Application for exclusion from the Register.

Notice of the consequences of recognizing an individual as a qualified investor, at the discretion of the Bank, may be combined into one document with the Notice of recognition of the Client as a qualified investor.

The Bank keeps the Notice of the consequences of recognizing an individual as a qualified investor, as well as information confirming the fact, date and time of sending the relevant notice to the Client, for at least 3 (Three) years from the date of termination of the agreement with the Client.

4.5.If the Bank decides to refuse to recognize the Client as a qualified investor, the Client shall be sent a Notice of refusal to recognize the person as a qualified investor no later than 5 (Five) working days from the date of such decision, which must contain the reason for such refusal (Appendix 11 to these Regulations).

4.6.The Bank keeps the documents submitted by the Client for the purpose of recognizing him as a qualified investor, and if the Bank decides to refuse to recognize the Client as a qualified investor, these documents will not be returned to the Client.

4.7.A client recognized as a qualified investor has the right to apply to the Bank with an Application for exclusion from the Register in general or in respect of certain types of securities and/or derivative financial instruments and/or services rendered, in respect of which he was recognized as a qualified investor (Appendix 3 to this Regulation).

The Bank is not entitled to refuse the Client to satisfy the Application for exclusion from the Register, provided that the said application is signed by the Client or the Authorized person(s) of the Client and the said application is executed in the form of Annex 3 to these Regulations.

An application drawn up in a form different from that provided for in Annex 3 to these Regulations, but containing all the information necessary for the Bank to identify the Client and make appropriate changes to the Register, cannot be a reason for refusing to accept it.

Relevant changes to the Register are made by the Bank no later than the next business day from the date of receipt of the Application for exclusion from the Register from the Client, and if transactions made at the expense of a qualified investor who submitted the Application for exclusion from the Register are not executed before the date of receipt of the said application - no later than the next working day from the date of execution of the last transaction.

If the applications of a qualified investor who submitted an Application for exclusion from the Register for the purchase of investment units of a unit investment fund intended for qualified investors are not executed, the relevant changes to the Register shall be made no later than the next business day from the date of making the corresponding entry on the personal account in the register of owners of investment shares or the occurrence of a circumstance that clearly indicates the impossibility of issuing investment shares to the person who submitted such applications. From the moment of receipt of the Application for exclusion from the Register, the Bank is not entitled, at the expense of a qualified investor, to conclude transactions with securities (except as provided in this paragraph) and (or) conclude agreements that are derivative financial instruments,

The Client recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor and who has submitted an Application for deletion from the Register to the Bank loses the status of a qualified investor in general or in respect of certain types of services and/or types of securities and/or derivative financial instruments in respect of which he was recognized as a qualified investor, from the moment of making the corresponding changes in the Register. Transactions with securities and/or derivative financial instruments intended for qualified investors are not made in respect of the Client from the moment the Bank receives the Application for exclusion from the Register.

The Bank, no later than 5 (Five) working days from the date of making an entry on exclusion from the Client's Register, sends him:

Notice of deletion from the register of persons, recognized as qualified investors (in case of refusal of the status of a qualified investor in general) or

Notice of recognition of the Client as a qualified investor indicating the types of services and/or types of securities and/or derivative financial instruments in respect of which the Client continues to be a qualified investor (if excluded from the Register in respect of some types of services and/or types of securities and/or derivative financial instruments) (Appendix 9 to this Regulation).

The Bank at least once a year informs the Clients - individuals recognized by it as qualified investors, of their right to submit to the Bank an Application for exclusion from the Register by bringing to the attention of the Clients the following information:

- on the Client's right to submit to the Bank an application to exclude him from the register of persons recognized as qualified investors, and in this case to lose the opportunity, using the Bank's services, to acquire securities and conclude agreements that are derivative financial instruments in respect of which the Client has been recognized by the Bank as qualified investor (Notice of the right to apply to the Bank for exclusion from the register of persons recognized as qualified investors, Appendix 12 to this Procedure);
- on the method and form of sending by the Client to the Bank of the Application for exclusion from the Register.

4.8. The Client, recognized as a qualified investor in respect of certain types of securities and/or other financial instruments and/or types of services provided, has the right to apply to the Bank with an Application in respect of other types of securities and/or other financial instruments and/or types of services provided, intended for qualified investors (appendices 1-2 to this Regulation). In this case, the Client shall submit documents confirming his compliance with the requirements, the observance of which is necessary for his recognition as a qualified investor in accordance with these Regulations.

In this case, the recognition of the Client as a qualified investor is carried out in the manner provided for in paragraphs. 4.1–4.5 of this Regulation.

4.9. The Bank decides to recognize a person as a qualified investor in respect of other types of securities and/or other financial instruments and/or types of services provided, or decides to refuse to make changes to the Register no later than 5 (Five) business days from the date of receipt of the Application.

Notification of recognition of the Client as a qualified investor in respect of other types of securities and/or other financial instruments and/or types of services provided (Appendix 9 to these Regulations) shall be sent to the Client no later than 5 (Five) business days from the date of making an entry on the change in the Register.

A notice of refusal to recognize a person as a qualified investor in respect of other types of securities and/or other financial instruments and/or types of services provided (Appendix 11 to these Regulations) shall be sent to the Client no later than 5 (Five) working days from the date of such decision.

4.10. The Bank makes a decision to exclude the Client, recognized by it as a qualified investor, from the Register in case of non-compliance with the requirements, compliance with which is necessary for recognizing the Client as a qualified investor (including when terminating the agreement on the provision of services in financial markets), and no later than 5 (Five) working days from the date of making an entry on exclusion in the Register sends a Notification on exclusion from the register of persons recognized as qualified investors (Appendix 8 to these Regulations).

4.11. All notifications provided for by these Regulations shall be sent to the Client by any of the methods specified in the Agreement/Regulations for ICBC Bank (JSC) Brokerage Services in the Securities Market.

4.12. The Client is responsible for the authenticity of the documents submitted by the Client to the Bank in order to recognize him as a qualified investor (and/or confirm the status of a qualified investor), as well as the information contained in them. If the Client is recognized as a qualified investor on the basis of false information provided by the Client, the consequences provided for in paragraph 6 of Article 3 of Federal Law No. 39-FZ of April 22, 1996 “On the Securities Market” do not apply. Recognition of the Client as a qualified investor on the basis of false information provided by him is not the basis for the invalidity of transactions made at the expense of this Client.

Chapter 5. Procedure for confirmation by a qualified investor - legal entity of compliance with the requirements, compliance with which is necessary for recognizing a person as a qualified investor

5.1. The Client - a legal entity recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, is obliged to confirm at least 1 (Once) times a year compliance with the requirements necessary for recognition as a qualified investor by submitting to the Bank an application from a legal entity to confirm the status of a qualified investor (Appendix 2 to this Regulation. ) and the relevant documents specified in Annex 1 to these Regulations.

5.2. In order to notify the Client - a legal entity of the need to confirm the status of a qualified investor, the Bank, no later than 30 (Thirty) calendar days before the date on which 1 (One) year is executed from the date of recognition of the Client as a qualified investor, sends him a corresponding notification (Appendix 7 to these Regulations).

5.3. If the Client - a legal entity within 1 (One) year from the moment of recognition as a qualified investor or from the moment of the last confirmation of compliance with the status of a qualified investor has not confirmed compliance with the requirements, compliance with which is necessary for recognition as a qualified investor, the Bank within 5 (Five) working days from the expiration date of the specified period, makes a decision to deprive the Client of the status of a qualified investor and no later than 5 (Five) working days from the date of making an entry on the exclusion in the Register, sends a Notice of exclusion from the register of persons recognized as qualified investors (Appendix 8 to these Regulations).

5.4. Verification of the documents submitted by the Client - a legal entity to confirm the status of a qualified investor, as well as notification of the Client - a legal entity about the results of the said verification, shall be carried out by the Bank in the manner and within the time limits established by these Regulations for the initial recognition of the Client as a qualified investor.

5.5. If the Client - a legal entity has not submitted the necessary supporting documents to the Bank within 5 (Five) working days from the date of expiration of the period specified in the Notification on the need to confirm the status of a qualified investor, makes a decision to deprive the Client of the status of a qualified investor.

In this case, changes related to the exclusion of the Client from the Register shall be made by the Bank no later than the business day following the day the Bank makes a decision, and if transactions made at the expense of such a Client are not executed before the day such a decision is made, no later than the next business day from the date of execution of the last transaction.

5.6. If, as a result of the analysis by the Bank of the submitted documents, the Client does not meet the necessary requirements, the Bank makes a decision to exclude the Client from the Register.

In this case, the Bank shall make changes related to the removal of the Client from the Register no later than the business day following the day the decision was made, and if transactions made at the expense of such a Client are not executed before the date of such decision, no later than the next business day from date of execution of the last transaction. Not later than 5 (Five) working days from the date of making an entry in the Register on the exclusion of the Client, the Bank sends him a Notice of exclusion from the register of persons recognized as qualified investors.

5.7.If the Bank makes a decision to confirm the status of a qualified investor, the Bank sends the Client a Notification on recognizing the Client as a qualified investor no later than 5 (Five) working days from the date of making an entry on confirmation in the Register.

Chapter 6. Procedure for Maintaining the Register of Persons Recognized as Qualified Investors

6.1.The Bank maintains the Register in electronic form in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of the Russian Federation and these Regulations. The form of the Register and the information contained in the Register are given in Appendix 5 to these Regulations.

6.2.The register contains the following information about a qualified investor:

- surname, name, patronymic (for an individual) or full and abbreviated name (for a legal entity);
- address (address of registration, address of residence or place of stay) for an individual or location for a legal entity;
- details of documents proving the identity of an individual, or TIN - for a Russian legal entity, or a code of a foreign organization assigned by a tax authority - for a foreign legal entity;
- the date of making an entry about the person in the Register;
- types of services and/or types of securities and/or other financial instruments in respect of which the person is recognized as a qualified investor;
- date of exclusion of the person from the Register;
- reason for exclusion of a person from the Register;
- other information in accordance with Appendix 9 to these Regulations.

6.3.Changes to the Register are made by the Bank after the relevant decision is made in accordance with these Regulations on the following grounds:

- the Client's request, drawn up in the form of one of the applications provided for by these Regulations with the documents attached to it;
- the Client's request to renounce the status of a qualified investor in general or in respect of certain types of services and/or types of securities and/or other financial instruments in respect of which the Client was previously recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, in any form, including all the information required the Bank to identify the Client and make appropriate changes to the Register;
- non-confirmation by the Client - a legal entity recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, of compliance with the Requirements in accordance with section 5 of these Regulations.

6.4.Changes to the Register related to the exclusion of a legal entity from the Register on the last of the listed grounds are carried out by the Bank without any requests from the Client.

Amendments to the Register on the basis of the Client's request to be removed from the Register as a whole or in relation to certain types of services and/or types of securities and/or other financial instruments in respect of which the Client was previously recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, are carried out within the time limits established in clause 4.7 of these Regulations.

Changes to the Register on the basis of the Application for changes (with attachment of documents confirming the relevant changes) regarding the information provided for in clause 6.2 of these Regulations are carried out within 3 (Three) business days from the date of receipt by the Bank of the Application for changes (Appendix 6 to this regulation).

Changes to the Register on other grounds, as well as inclusion in the Register of information about the Client when he is recognized as a qualified investor, is carried out no later than the next business day from the date the Bank makes a decision on:

- recognition of the Client as a qualified investor;
- recognition of the Client as a qualified investor in respect of Additional types of securities and/or derivative financial instruments and/or types of services;
- exclusion of the Client - a legal entity from the Register, if the Client, recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, has not confirmed compliance with the Requirements in accordance with Section 5 of these Regulations.

6.5. At the request of the Client, drawn up in the form of Appendix 4 to these Regulations, the Bank, within 5 (Five) working days from the date of its receipt, sends the Client an extract from the Register containing information about the Client, in the form of Appendix 13 to these Regulations. This request can be submitted by any of the methods specified in the Agreement/Regulations for Brokerage Services for ICBC Bank (JSC) Clients in the Securities Market. The method of provision (including in electronic form or on paper) of the statement is determined by the Client in the request.

6.6. Persons who are qualified investors without passing the recognition procedure in accordance with clause 1.2 of these Regulations are not included in the Register.

6.7. The register is maintained in such a way that at any time in relation to any Client it is possible to unambiguously determine the list of securities / financial instruments / services in respect of which the Client is recognized as a qualified investor, the date of recognition of the Client as a qualified investor, the date of confirmation by the Client of the status of a qualified investor, as well as date and reason for exclusion of the Client from the Register.

Chapter 7. Rights and obligations of the parties.

7. Rights and obligations of the Bank:

- 7.1. The Bank is obliged to include information about the Client in the Register or make changes to the Register within the time limits specified in clause 6.4 of these Regulations.
- 7.2. The Bank is obliged to issue extracts from the Register to the Client within the terms established by clause 6.5 of these Regulations.
- 7.3. The Bank is obliged annually, within the period specified in section 5 of these Regulations, to accept from the Client - a legal entity recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, documents (in accordance with the List of Documents) to confirm the compliance of the Client - a legal entity with the Requirements.
- 7.4. The Bank is obliged to make a decision to make changes to the Register related to the cancellation of the status of the Client - a legal entity and its exclusion from the Register, if the Client - a legal entity recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, has not confirmed compliance with the Requirements in accordance with these Regulations.
- 7.5. The Bank decides to remove the Client from the Register in case of termination of all concluded agreements for the provision of services in the financial markets.
- 7.6. The Bank has the right to establish restrictions on securities and/or other financial instruments with which the Clients can perform operations / transactions under the agreement on the provision of services in the financial markets.
- 7.7. These restrictions may fully or partially apply to Clients recognized as qualified investors in respect of those types of securities and/or financial instruments, which include securities and/or other financial instruments with restrictions established by the Bank.
- 7.8. Rights and obligations of the Client:
  - 7.8.1. The Client - a legal entity recognized by the Bank as a qualified investor, must annually, no later than the expiration date of a year from the date of recognition of the Client as a qualified investor or from the date of previous confirmation of its compliance with the Requirements, confirm compliance with the Requirements by submitting the relevant documents to the Bank (in accordance with the List of Documents). Verification of the documents submitted to the Bank in accordance with this paragraph shall be carried out in the manner prescribed by Section 5 of these Regulations.
  - 7.8.2. The Client has the right to send to the Bank applications and other appeals provided for by these Regulations, provided that their form and content comply with the requirements of these Regulations.
  - 7.8.3. The Client is obliged to notify the Bank in writing of the termination of powers of the Authorized Persons of the Client no later than the date of termination of such powers.
  - 7.8.4. In case of failure to submit or untimely submission of the said notification to the Bank, the Bank shall not be liable to the Client for any actions under the agreement on the basis of statements or other documents provided for by these Regulations, signed by persons previously authorized by the Client to perform them.

Chapter 8. List of documents submitted by a person confirming his/her compliance with the requirements, the observance of which is necessary for recognition of a person as a qualified investor.

8. Customers - individuals must provide:

8.1. To confirm the ownership of securities and/or derivative financial instruments in accordance with the requirements of clause 3.2.1 of the Regulations for Recognizing Clients as Qualified Investors, approved by the Bank's order:

– an extract (s) of a personal account from the register of securities holders / an extract from a depo account / a broker's report indicating the number of securities owned by the client, other financial instruments (for foreign brokers, if such a report certifies the rights to securities by the broker's applicable law). The date of issue of the document must fall on one of the days in the two-week period preceding the date of submission of the application to the Bank, the document must be certified by the signature of an authorized person and the seal of the organization that issued the document (register of securities holders / depository / broker);

- documents certified by the signature of an authorized person and the seal of the organization that issued the document (broker, management company of a mutual investment fund or other persons in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation), confirming:

- the cost of acquiring securities (for securities that do not have a market price required for calculating the appraised value in accordance with clause 3.5 of the Regulations for Recognizing Clients as Qualified Investors, approved by the Bank's order);

- the estimated value of investment units as of the last date of its determination before the date of submission of the application to the Bank;

- the amount of premiums paid under option agreements (contracts);

- the amount of funds required to ensure the fulfillment of the client's obligations under derivative financial instruments.

The documents submitted to the Bank in accordance with this paragraph must confirm the fact that the client owns securities and / or derivative financial instruments on one of the days in the two-week period preceding the date of submission of the application to the Bank.

8.2. To confirm work experience in accordance with the requirements of clause 3.2.2 of the Regulations for Recognizing Clients as Qualified Investors, approved by an order for the Bank:
